Description of Workshops

KALEIDOSCOPE

Participants will learn how to identify their individual learning styles and the implications those learning styles hold for themselves and their interactions with others in and outside the workplace. Both theory and practical techniques and ideas are included. A portion of the workshop will explore opportunities for continued learning on this topic.

SUCCEEDING with CHALLENGING STUDENTS' ESP

Succeeding with difficult students represents ongoing challenges for the school staff. This workshop provides participants with specifics in succeeding with students who are continually disruptive, persistently defiant, demanding of attention, or unmotivated. These are the students who defy authority and cause stress, frustration, and anger. Participants can apply what they learn at this workshop in their jobs.

LBGTQ CURRICULUM INCLUSION

Creating an affirming society means understanding the lives and contributions of all members of that society. This workshop will focus on including positive content from the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer communities across the curriculum in order to develop a safer and more inclusive school culture and society at large.

SOCIAL NETWORKING

This workshop is designed to assist leaders and members identify inappropriate personal and workplace use that may result in disciplinary action or termination – the leading 21st century workplace issue.

NEW MEMBER ORGANIZING

Your membership in NJEA matters! Welcome to NJEA! We are proud to count you as a member of the nation's premiere education association. This fun and action-packed seminar will explore not only WHAT NJEA is but also WHY there is an organization like the NJEA. Come and learn all about what NJEA can do for you and how to get the most out of your membership. For example, did you know that NJEA's many programs can enhance your personal and professional life? It all starts with you, and it all starts right here.

ESP- Don't get voted off the Island

This workshop, specifically designed for Essential School Personnel, will look at how to protect your careers through knowledge, relationships, and celebrating of what you do for the success of your school children. In order to be a survivor, you must "Outwit...Outplay...and Outlast"! Come join us for an island-themed workshop that will give you the tools you need to remain in your chosen career.

NJEA HEALTH & SAFETY

Learn how to take full advantage of your health and safety committee. We will review the process for establishing your local committee, identify potential health hazards in the workplace, and learn how to use federal and local regulations to hold your employers accountable. Become a vital part of your Association, and better understand your obligations as committee members and to use health and safety as an organizing tool to advocate for the rights of all workers.

PRESIDENTS' FORUM (LOCAL & COUNTY PRESIDENTS ONLY)

Through facilitated discussions with presidents and NJEA staff, this roundtable will provide presidents with the opportunity to discuss how the pandemic has changed what we do with, for, and on behalf on our members. Topics might include membership, health and safety, negotiations, evaluations, and updates on NJEA's statewide initiatives.

LAT ROUNDTABLE

ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE TRAINING

Learn the fundamental and develop skills to help association representatives (AR's) effectively carry out the various functions necessary to maintain a strong organization.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Discover the keys to successful grievance processing. This seminar includes an overview of essential elements of good representation.
